At John Burroughs' Woodchuck Lodge

Nature programs. 1PM, Woodchuck Lodge*
1633 Burroughs Memorial Road
Roxbury, NY 12474

*The May program takes place at the Water Discovery Center in Arkville, NY. 1pm.

May 4. Ed Renehan

The Roxbury of John Burroughs' Youth & Old Age

Edward Renehan, Jr. is a writer and editorial/publishing consultant. He is the author of JOHN BURROUGHS: AN AMERICAN NATURALIST (Black Dome Press, 1998) as well as WALT WHITMAN AND JOHN BURROUGHS, LITERARY COMRADES, published by the Vassar College Library in 2008. He most recently wrote the introduction for the SUNY Press reprint of John Burroughs's IN THE CATSKILLS and MY BOYHOOD. Ed will guide our virtual visit to the Roxbury of Burroughs's youth and old age—the place where in his last decade he nostalgically dealt with what he called "a homesickness that home cannot cure." Joins us at the Water Discovery Center in Arkville, NY, 1pm. All other programs are at Woodchuck Lodge.

June 1. John Michelotti

Fungi Walk & Talk

Gather at the front porch of Woodchuck Lodge to join John Michelotti, founder of Catskill Fungi, for a mushroom walk. John has a passion to empower you with fungi through outdoor educational classes, cultivation courses, mushroom art, and mushroom health extractions. He was chosen by the Catskill Center as "A Steward of the Catskills." He teaches at the New York Botanical Gardens and is president of the Mid-Hudson Mycological Association. Woodchuck Lodge at 1pm.
